Honorary Degree Recipients

Therese Sullivan Caccavale '75

As an international leader in the field of early foreign language education and immersion, Therese Sullivan Caccavale '75 helped shape the foreign language curricula of schools throughout the United States and beyond.

Over the course of a 38-year career teaching foreign language in the Holliston Public Schools in Massachusetts, she received numerous honors, including the most prestigious honor in her field, France's Chevalier of the Ordre des Palmes Académiques, an academic "knighthood" earned in 1999.

After graduating from SUNY Cortland in 1975 with majors in French and childhood education, she earned a master's degree at Middlebury College then won a Fulbright Scholarship to earn an advanced degree from L'Université de Franche-Comté in France.

As a teacher, she established a ground-breaking program to teach Spanish in Holliston, Mass., elementary schools and created the district's first comprehensive, kindergarten-grade 12 French Immersion Program. That program earned the district the Melba D. Woodruff National Award for Exemplary Elementary Foreign Language Instruction.

Caccavale's honors include the SUNY Cortland Alumni Association's 2005 Distinguished Alumni Award and the New York State Association of Foreign Language Teachers' distinguished leadership award. She served as president of the National Network for Early Language Learning and helped school districts around the country develop early language education and immersion programs.

Caccavale passed away on March 5, 2017, and is being awarded posthumously the SUNY honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

Scott A. Williams '82

Executive producer and lead writer for "NCIS," one of the most-watched television shows on the planet, Scott A. Williams is also the co-founder of Shane's Inspiration, an organization that promotes inclusion for children with disabilities that has built 64 inclusive playgrounds throughout the world.

After graduating from SUNY Cortland in 1982 with a degree in English, Williams began writing scripts for television crime dramas, breathing life into characters for a long list of popular shows that included "NYPD Blue," "Castle," "The District," "Bones," "Brooklyn South," "Third Watch," "Crossing Jordan" and "Without a Trace."

In 2003, he joined "NCIS" as a writer. He became executive producer in 2015. "NCIS," which chronicles a fictional group of special agents of the Naval Criminal Investigative Service, runs in 66 countries and draws more than 50 million viewers each week. It is the longest-running, scripted, non-animated show on primetime television.

In 1997, Williams and his wife, Catherine, suffered the death of their first child, Shane, who was born with spinal muscular atrophy. They channeled their grief into the creation of Shane's Inspiration, a nonprofit that has changed the lives of thousands of families in communities ranging from Sun Valley, Calif., to Bangalore, India. The organization also helps communities make recreational facilities more accessible and offers programming to help children without disabilities learn how to play with children who have special needs.

Candidates for Bachelor's Degrees

Academic Traditions

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The procession begins with the all-college gonfalonier, who leads in the faculty, followed by the schools of arts and sciences, education and professional studies gonfaloniers, who lead in the students. The procession concludes when the mace bearer brings in the platform party, which consists of members of the College's administration and faculty leadership, the College Council, visiting dignitaries and honorees.

THE MACE

The mace is a ceremonial staff used as a symbol of authority. The mace bearer precedes the platform party and places the mace on a special stand where it remains while the official proceedings of Commencement are underway. SUNY Cortland's mace, the "Torch of Learning," is made of silver and rosewood and was created by local silversmith John Marshall.

THE GONFALONS

The four bright banners carried in the academic procession are called gonfalons. The red, white, black and grey gonfalon represents the College; in blue, grey and burgundy it represents the School of Arts and Sciences; in blue, purple and black it represents the School of Education; and in peach and green it represents the School of Professional Studies.

The gonfalons were designed by Libby Kowalski, professor emerita of art and art history, and Kathy Maher, a 1984 SUNY Cortland graduate. The standards were made by Bard Prentiss, associate professor emeritus of art and art history, and J. Eric Kroot. Materials were provided by the Gilbert and Mary Cahill Foundation and the late Rozanne M. Brooks, distinguished teaching professor emerita of sociology/anthropology.

REGALIA

Commencement lends itself to the pageantry of an academic procession rooted in medieval times. The gowns and hoods worn by faculty members, candidates for graduation and platform dignitaries distinguish the institution from which the wearer was or will be graduated, the level of the degree earned and the field of learning.

In 1985, American colleges established a standard code of academic dress, specifying three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, the gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve with the front part cut in an arc, and the gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves. The doctoral gown also is trimmed in velvet. The hood's inner lining, which folds out at the back and center, indicates the colors of the institution granting the degree, while the border, which comes around to the front of the neck, represents the field of learning. Universities outside the United States have a variety of shapes and colors of doctoral gowns.

The black mortarboard cap is standard. Its only distinguishing feature is a gold tassel worn by holders of the doctoral degree.

THE HONORS MEDALLION

The graduates wearing silver medallions with red ribbons have completed the SUNY Cortland Honors Program. To complete the Honors Program, a student must take 24 credit hours of honors courses, engage in 40 hours of community service, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.2, and complete an honors thesis during his or her senior year.

THE KENTE STOLE

The Kente stole is a rich, multicolored, handwoven style of cloth that originated in Ghana, West Africa, and is revered throughout the Africana world. It is traditionally worn during important national ceremonies. The colors, patterns and ideogramatic images of the Kente stole impart information about the wearer and highlight the importance of an event or a ceremony. Similar to the academic hood, the Kente stole is relatively new to commencement ceremonies in the United States and signifies and symbolizes higher education's connection to the rich cultures, intellectual traditions and academic achievements of the Africana world.

SPECIAL PERSON DESIGNATION

All graduates can designate a special person who has been instrumental in helping them achieve their higher education goals. This individual's name is read along with the graduate's name as he or she walks across the stage at the Commencement ceremony. Students who choose to name a special person do so when they apply for their degree.

INTERNATIONAL FLAG PRESENTATIONS

Graduating students representing countries from around the world have the opportunity to present their national flag to the president during the Commencement ceremony. Alma Mater

*By lofty elm trees shaded round,
Tioughnioga near,
Our grand old Cortland College stands,
To all of us how dear!
We'll sing to thee, dear Alma Mater,
Of love that shall never die,
We'll strive for thy glory eternal,
Keep thy stainless honor high.
Inspiring each son and each daughter
The noblest aims to try,
All thy fame and thy spirit,
Thy might are ours
As the swift years hurry by.*
